Terms of Sale—1. Immediately after the sale is knocked down, the highest bidder shall deposit an amount of 2 instalments of his bid, failing which, the sale will be put up to sale again at his risk. The highest bidder shall at once give tangible security for the due performance of his contract, the security being a resident of this Province and possessed of property and approved of by the Amildar of the Taluk in which he resides; failure to give such security shall entail the resale of the contract, the first bidder being made liable to make up any loss that may thereby be sustained by the Municipality. The contract and security bonds should be executed on stamp papers of the value laid down in Section 5 of Schedule I of the General Stamp Act.

2. The farm shall be made over to the highest bidder on 1st April 1875, provided a muchalika is (in due form on stamp paper) executed before the date, giving security as above stated and depositing the amount of 2 instalments.

3. The highest bidder shall within the 20th of each month pay into the Taluk Treasury without fail the amount of the instalment due for that month according to the terms of the contract bond, failing which the farm will be put up to auction again at the risk of the defaulter, the loss that may thereby be caused being made good by the amount of deposit and by the property of the darkbastdar and his security.

4. It is left to the Commissioner of the Division to accept or reject the tender; if the tender be not accepted, the deposit will be at once returned.

5. In default of payment into the Treasury on the prescribed date, besides the farm being dealt with as mentioned in para 3 of this Notice, the contractor will moreover be made liable to pay interest on the arrears at the same rate as prescribed for land revenue demands, i. e. half pie per rupee per diem.

The Hymns of the Rig-Veda, in the Samhita and Pada Text, by Professor F. Max Müller, M. A., in two Volumes.—Price, Rs. 24; packing and postage, Re. 1—12.

*The Rig-Veda, the oldest book of Indian literature, has very properly been made one of the principal class-books for those who study Sanskrit in the Schools and Colleges in India, and though at present a scholar-like knowledge of the Vedic hymns is in the examinations required of the more advanced students only, yet, as soon as editions, translations, grammars and dictionaries shall have rendered the study of these ancient documents more accessible, I doubt not that the time will come when no one in India will call himself a Sanskrit scholar, who cannot construe the hymns of the ancient Rishis of his country.—Extract from Preface.
